How did Stream Machine obtain your personal data?

Stream Machine has obtained your data because you have provided this data to us.

What are your rights?

Under the European General Data Protection Regulation you have a number of rights with regard to your data and the processing thereof:

Access

You may access your personal information and make any necessary changes in your account. If you would like to see which personal data Stream Machine has obtained about you, you may exercise your right of access by submitting a request to Stream Machine.

Making changes

If you wish to make changes to the personal information that you have seen as a result of a request for access and you are unable to make the changes yourself in your account, you may request that Stream Machine makes these changes for you. You may request that Stream Machine modifies, corrects, supplements, erases or shields your information.

Restriction of processing of personal data

You also have the right, under certain conditions, to ask Stream Machine to restrict the processing of your personal data.

Right to object

If processing of your data takes place on the grounds of 'legitimate interest' by Stream Machine or a third party, you have the right to object to that processing.

Portability of data

You have the right to obtain your personal data from Stream Machine. Stream Machine will provide this in a structured and commonly used format, which can easily be opened using commonly used digital systems.

Withdrawing consent

When the legal basis for a particular processing is your explicit consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. This does not affect past processing, but does mean that we will no longer be allowed to process this data in the future. It may also result in Stream Machine no longer being able to provide you with certain services.

Response from Stream Machine

A request can be sent to privacy@streammachine.io. Stream Machine will comply with your request as soon as possible and in any case no later than one (1) month after Stream Machine has received such a request. If Stream Machine rejects your request, we will indicate in our reply why the request was rejected.

Recipients of your personal data

Your data may be transmitted to:

- Data processors

It is possible that Stream Machine is required to submit your data to a third party, for example to fulfil a legal obligation.

Transfer to third countries or international organisations

It may be necessary, for instance for technical and operational reasons, to transfer your (personal) data to affiliates of Stream Machine located outside the European Economic Area. Due to the possibility that the regulations in the area of privacy protection do not offer the same protection as within the European Economic Area, Stream Machine will use the EU Model Clauses to protect your privacy as much as possible. If that is not possible, Stream Machine will ask your consent to transfer your (personal) data to countries that do not maintain an adequate protection level. You may withdraw your consent at any time.

What are cookies and how does Stream Machine use them?

Cookies are small pieces of (text) information that are sent to your browser when you visit the website of Stream Machine and then stored on the hard disk or in the memory of your device. The cookies placed via Stream Machine's website cannot damage your device or the files stored on it. With 'cookies', we also mean comparable techniques collecting information, such as device fingerprinting.

Can changes be made to this Privacy Statement?

This Privacy Statement is subject to changes. We therefore advise you to regularly read the Privacy Statement for any such changes.

Questions, remarks, and complaints

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Statement or the way in which Stream Machine uses your data, you can send an e-mail to privacy@streammachine.io. If you have a complaint about the way your data is processed, please send an e-mail to privacy@streammachine.io. Furthermore, you always have the right to contact the competent national data protection authority. In The Netherlands, this is the Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens.
